

ELKS' SMOKER LARGELY ATTENDED SATURDAY NIGHT

ANTLERS ENTERTAIN THEIR FRIENDS UNTIL A LATE HOUR.

"What did you think of it?"
"The best I have ever attended."
This expresses the opinion of about 350 gentlemen who attended the Elks' smoker Saturday night at Elks' hall. All the talent in the town was out, and all vied with one another to excel in this particular line of entertainment.

Attorney Bert McIntosh was master of ceremonies and handled that important station in his usual style, making a neat little opening address, welcoming the guests and calling upon different people to entertain.

A number of boxing bouts were pulled off by the boys of the volunteers' gymnasium, and the way they performed surprised the crowd. The most amusing of this series was the blackened glove contest, and when it was over the two principals looked like a couple of Jack Johnsons. The same boys also demonstrated their ability on the mat in a number of wrestling bouts which proved as interesting as the boxing. Ed Malley and Professor Braun acted as referee.

The Butler and Idora talent lent their services after the shows were out and were greatly appreciated. The Jacobys, Julius Goldsmith, Ennoway and Henry Fife of the Butler musical talent, rendered "El Trovatore" in a manner that brought down the house, and the solo work of Josephine Jacoby was particularly appreciated. The Markhams, a new team which is playing at the Butler this week, entertained with song and witticisms and kept the house in a roar.

Voss and Tatro of the Idora rendered a number of selections and received the usual applause they elicit wherever they appear. Nelsus and Levis, magicians from the Idora, entertained with slight of hand and mind reading, and F. E. Baldwin, of the same theater, sang "River Shannon," and responded to an encore with a parody on "Silvery Moon" that brought down the house.

Mr. Johns, of the Montana Tonopah, sang "The Holy City," and Mr. Dobrowsky rendered a few selections on the piano. The Tonopah band appeared on the scene about midnight and livened things up with some band music.

Cigars were emptied into big baskets, bottled beer by the armload and trays of sandwiches kept everybody supplied with plenty to smoke, eat and drink.

OVERRULES NYE COUNTY DEMURRER

JUDGE ORR OF RENO HANDS
DOWN DECISION IN FAMOUS
NOTE CASES.

Judge Orr of Reno on Saturday evening overruled the demurrer of Nye county in the case of the First National banks of San Francisco and Goldfield, holding that a county under the provision concerning emergency loans can issue negotiable promissory notes and Nye county was given three weeks to answer.

It is understood that the county will set for defense its deposits in the Nye & Ormsby County bank, to whom the notes were originally issued.

George B. Thatcher and P. M. Bowler represented the county, while McIntosh & Cook looked after the interests of the banks.

NEW TEAM A SCREAM AT IDORA

BIG HOUSES LAST NIGHT AND EVERYBODY WENT AWAY
WELL PLEASED.

The Idora had another big house last night which taxed the capacious theater to its limit and the bill was one that pleased. The pictures were fine and the new scenery, set for the first time, was admired by all who attended. This house is now equipped with scenery to stage any kind of a show.

An overture will be played by the popular orchestra before each show, and for tonight a selection from the popular opera "Prima Donna," will be rendered. This part of the program will prove very popular, as Tonopahans are music lovers, and when they are afforded an opportunity to listen to good music, they always avail themselves of the chance. The Idora orchestra has won a place in the hearts of lovers of good music and their efforts have been appreciated from the beginning.

Last night was change night for the vaudeville portion of the program, and in Kingsbury and Munson, a one-act comedy team, the house has a sure winner, as it was a roar from the time the curtain went up until it was rung down.

Miss Kingsbury, in this act, wears a sheath gown which will prove of special interest to the ladies. The gown is sewed on before each performance, not a hook or button in the creation, and to get out it is a case of "rip."

For next Friday night the management is already assured of four amateur acts and promises of others have been made. Amateur night is very popular, both with ambitious talent and with the showgoers.

The pictures for tonight will be of the highest grade and the house will be comfortable, as it is well ventilated. The big "chunk" of 10 cents is all that is asked to witness a performance that would cost you a half dollar if you had to pay full value.

WANT TO LEASE OLD MONTGOMERY- SHOSHONE MINE

STOCKHOLDERS DECIDE TO DEFER
SELLING OF PROPERTY
TO LATER DATE.

It was announced on Monday last by the Montgomery-Shoshone Consolidated Mining company that the management had been directed by an informal meeting of stockholders, to endeavor to lease the mine and plant of the company.

A meeting of the stockholders had been called to decide the future of the company, but no quorum appeared and the session resolved itself into an internal discussion.

The suggestion of the general manager, John G. Kirchen, that the mill could be dismantled and sold for about $48,000 was taken up, but the stockholders decided it was to the best interests of the company to lease the property if possible. If at the end of 30 days no lease has been effected, and it seems improbable that a lease can be effected, the management is directed to proceed to dispose of the mill and machinery on the best possible terms.

DENVER, Col., June 5.—Suits designed to compel express companies to refrain from the transportation of any matter that may legally be sent by mail, according to the Denver Post, will be filed soon by George J. Kindel of Denver before the state railway commissions of Michigan, Pennsylvania and Colorado. Mr. Kindel has been active in the fight for lower freight and express rates for years.

In each of the complaints, which have already been prepared, and which will be filed within a few days, the express companies are charged with violating the postal laws by carrying mail matter, and the state commissioners are asked to restrain them from so doing, and to cancel all rates filed by express companies for such business.

MISTAKEN IN NAME OF FRATERNAL SOCIETY
